

IF THESE WALLS COULD TALK

16-27 NOV 2022

CONRAD SQUARE

SOLO EXHIBITION

BLACKCAT GALLERY

“If These Walls Could Talk” is the third solo exhibition by Melbourne-based artist Conrad Square. We invite you to the opening night on Thursday the 17th of November from 6:00 – 8:30 pm.

This new collection of paintings combines traditional materials and methods with a modern aesthetic; encapsulating bold colours, playful characters, familiar shapes, and recurring symbols to create a collage-like visual language.

Square fosters meaningful connections between time and place, while exploring the dialogue between the viewer and their surroundings.

Interpreting the interplay of the city laneways, he processes its perpetual renewal – as it celebrates change. These forms, techniques, and tactics cross-pollinate to give each surface a unique vocabulary; creating an abstract composition of fragmented conversations.
